Officers received hold up alarm at above location. Upon arrival officers spoke with comp., an employee at the Shoney's at 2750 S. Perkins who advised he had observed a M/B laying in the flower bed on the east side of the building looking in. When the M/B outside saw comp., the M/B got up & left S/B behind the buildings. Comp. advised last time they were robbed, a short thin M/B had laid down in the flower bed in the same spot. (OVER)

A witness advised he observed a M/B wearing a blue Memphis State Jacket walking S/B on Perkins from Cottonwood. Witness advised he had observed this M/B hiding in the rear of both the Circle K at 2810 S. Perkins & the Highway Oil at 2840 S. Perkins. Witness advised M/B appeared to be watching the squad cars as they passed by & working his way S/B. Witness called from O'Malleys at 2800 S. Perkins. Officer Currin observed M/B matching description walking S/B Perkins approaching Aloha. Officer Currin got on the PA System & advised the M/B to stop; however, he continued walking for approx. 20 steps then spun & walked toward the squad car. Officer Currin placed M/B in rear of squad car. Above listed Officers were also on the scene. Lt. Howarth, 306 D, made scene & advised. The M/B was taken back to the Shonays where comp positively I.D'd him as M/B who had been laying in the flower bed. In recent months, several robberies & kidnappings have occurred in that area by a M/B matching somewhat that description. Ref # 9402278008 was a kidnapping which occurred at Perkins & Judy Lynn. Victim advised suspect was a M/B short & thin, dark complexion & strong body odor. Suspect, def. also had strong body odor. Def. was physically arrested & transported to 201 Poplar per 306 D.
